What are my obligations as a Registered Practitioner?

As a practitioner registered under the Design and Building Practitioner Act 2020, you will be required to follow a set of prescribed conditions. These are detailed in Division 2 (36) of the Design and Building Practitioner Regulations 2021.

These conditions include:

- you must continue to hold the class of licence that was required to satisfy the qualification requirements for the class of registration under Schedule 2 in which you are registered
- you must comply with the code of practice:
  - a) for a prescribed practitioner - set out in Schedule 4, Part 2, Division 1, or
  - b) for a registered professional engineer - set out in Schedule 4, Part 2, Division 2.

Registrations in the fire system classes of Design Practitioner issued in accordance with Pathway 1 clause 94 of the regulations, must also comply with the requirements and conditions in clause 94(3), 94(4) and (94)5.

A Design Practitioner - Architectural registration holder must be fully registered as an architect within the meaning of the Architects Act 2003 and be recorded as a practising architect in the register maintained by the Registrar of the NSW Architects Registration Board constituted under that Act.

What are my obligations as a Professional Engineer?

As a practitioner registered under the Design and Building Practitioner Act 2020, you will be required to follow a set of prescribed conditions. These are detailed in Division 2 (37) of the Design and Building Practitioner Regulations 2021.

These conditions include:

- a) you must continue to hold the recognition or registration under a recognised engineering body's recognition or registration scheme, or
- b) you must continue to hold the recognition or registration by a professional body of engineers that operates with a professional standards scheme.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

It is a condition of registration, that you must keep written records specifying how you have satisfied the CPD requirements for each year of registration. You must maintain the records for at least five years and be able to provide written copies of the records if requested.
